The Crittenden Press

ISSUED WEEKLY.

R. C. WALKER, Publisher.

Paducah Democrats ratify tonight.

The legislature reassembled yesterday at noon.

Kentucky's majority when last heard from was hovering around 40,000.

Grover's majority of the popular vote is some where in the hundred thousands.

Over seven million dollars have been paid out so far this month to pensioners.

Even Pennsylvania gave Harrison twenty thousand less majority than it gave him in 1888.

There is to be a hanging in Louisville next week. It is not a solo affair either, but a regular quartet.

And now they say it was the office holders that did it. This is a mistake it was the office seekers, who help do it.

The majority of Cleveland over Harrison in Illinois is 27,057. Kentucky Democrats had better look to their laurels.

The tariff should be taken off of grindstones among the first things done. The tax that Adlai used must need be kept sharp.

If the legislature Gov Brown and the Auditor can settle their little matters as effectually as the people completed the job on the 8th, we will all take a rest.

The General Association of Kentucky Baptists is in session at Covington. According to statistics read there are now 3,269,806 Baptists in this country.

The guessing at Mr. Cleveland's cabinet has commenced. The two Kentuckians mentioned in connection with this board of advisors are Carlisle and Breckenridge.

Ohio fluttered in our grasp for a while but the buckeye State has now about fluttered back to the bosom of McKinley, but she is not loaded with a majority that weighs Me down.

One of the new People's party congressmen from Kansas is a ter-blood Indian. So-called Jerry, an Indian and a majority for Weaver should certainly bring Kansas to the front.

When the democrats went out of power four years ago there was a surplus of $50,000,000 in the Treasury, when they go in next March, they will find a big hole where they left the money.

A census bulletin just published places Kentucky's population at 1,858,635; of these 1,590,402 are whites; 268,173 colored. 942,758 are males and 915,877 females. 59,356 are foreign born.

The tax collector of Carter county undertook to sell some land for unjust railroad tax, but when about five hundred citizens invited him to desist he desisted and stood not upon the order of desisting.

The strongest Third party Congressional district in Arkansas gave Democratic majority of 4000. This is the year when the Democrats, who do not see what they want, have called for it, and have been promptly supplied.

Now comes the news that Senator David B. Hill is soon to wed a beautiful Southern widow. If this be true, the time will be here some of these days, and a beautiful Southern woman will reside in the White house.

Already you hear some talk of any extra session of Congress next Spring. There will be none, for Grover and Adlai will be entirely too busy chopping off heads, i. e. turning the rascals out, to look after congress before the regular term.

Among the very best of good thing, that occurred in Kentucky last week, was the defeat of Tom Pettit in the Second District. Ellis beat the deserter about 8,000. Pettit thought he was running for Congress, but he was evidently mistaken.

The National Convention of the Farmer's Alliance is in session at Memphis. There are two prominent factions in the convention, one is endeavoring to make a political machine of the organization and the other combats the mixing of politics with the order.

The First District.

According to the official returns from some of the counties and unofficial reports from others the vote of the First Congressional District is as follows:

	Stone	Debo	Keys
Ballard	898	160	278
Caldwell	942	1105	316
Callaway	1475	267	581
Carlisle	774	49	393
Crittenden	1100	1301	165
Fulton	1158	305	90
Graves	2493	916	938
Hickman	1071	430	251
Livingston	907	528	213
Lyon	729	239	140
Marshall	1019	326	584
McCracken	1779	1220	455
Trigg	1033	730	450

Totals. 15,293 7,635 4,347

Stone's majority over Debo is 6,658; over Keys 10,446, and over Keys and Debo together 2,811.

Smith seems to have been lost sight of, his name is not mentioned in the published reports from some counties he received probably about 300 votes in the district.

Full returns from all the counties will make no changes in the above table, but the changes will be inconsiderate, possibly increasing Stone's majority a few votes.

The reader, after glancing over the returns, will hardly come to the conclusion that the Democracy of the old Gibraltara is disrupted. She is doing the usual amount of business at the old stand, notwithstanding the effort of a few small concerns to draw trade from her territory.

The Judicial District Vote.

The result of the official vote in the judicial district is not yet obtainable. The majority of the majorities of the candidates for Circuit Judge are reported as follows, and the official figures are not likely to vary much from these.

PRATT'S MAJORITY.

Hopkins	61
Caldwell	255
Crittenden	164
Total	480

NUNN MAJORITY.

Livingston county	363
This leaves Pratt a majority of 117 in the district.

Grayott carried Livingston by 371; Hopkins 290; Moore carried Caldwell by 162 and Crittenden by 252. This gives Grayotta a majority of 105 in the district.

The State of Kansas appears to have practically abolished prohibition. The new Third party governor elect announces that the enforcement of the prohibition law will be left with local officers. If a locality wants prohibition, its officers must enforce the law, and not depend on the State to do so. This it is said, has given an impetus to the liquor trade and already open saloons are springing up, where blind-tigers and dives have heretofore existed.

A large amount of fun is being popped at Henry Watterson since the election, because he predicted the defeat of Cleveland. In the event of the latter's nomination, Watterson breathed the breath of life into the platform at Chicago and that platform was the spirit of the trinity which won the battle, Henry Watterson is, as he should be, as proud as any other Democratic chicken that infests the Democratic newspaper offices from Maine to California.

According to the latest returns the Democrats will have about 100 majority in the Lower House of Congress; in the Senate there will be forty-four Democrats, forty Republicans and four Populists. On matters of reform it is thought that the Populists will vote with the Democrats. If however, they should vote with the Republicans, the Vice-President will cast the deciding vote, and the way taring man, though a fool, knows how Adlai will vote.

A Road Department.

Albert A. Pope, of Boston, is making effort to induce Congress to establish a road department, and with this end in view he has sent out petitions to be signed by citizens and forwarded to him and then Congress. The Pass is in receipt of a letter and petition from Mr. Pope, and as this country is directly interested in the road problem, we publish the prayer as Mr. Pope desires to offer it to Congress:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives in Congress assembled:

We, the undersigned, citizens of the United States, hereby most respectfully petition that there be founded in the city of Washington, in the District of Columbia, a Road Department, similar to the Agricultural Department, for the purpose of promoting knowledge in the art of constructing and maintaining roads; and we ask that in such department provision be made for teaching students so that they may become skilled road engineers.

In connection with this Road Department we request that there be established a permanent Exhibit in which shall be shown sections of roads illustrating various methods of construction and also the best road materials.

We further petition that Congress appropriate funds sufficient to erect a building at the World's Columbian Exposition for the purpose of comprehensive road exhibit.

Salem.

Election day passed off very quietly. No whisky, no fusses or fights. The Democrats carried the precinct by more than three to one over the Republicans, and the Third Party was not in it.

We have asked a good many about the "Ben Keys cyclone" that was to sweep the Congressional District on the 8th. We find the whole thing exploded and went up in thin air, it could not have gone anywhere else. The whole party was a little thin. But we feel kindly towards our misguided friends and stand with outstretched arms ready to take those that have been duped back into the "Democratic Church" but the ring leaders must confess their sins and be re-baptized; to say the Democrats here are happy—does not express it—they are over joyed; having only one less to mar their happiness, that of Tom Nunn. It is with exceeding great sorrow that we have to give him up. Tom, come to Salem; your best friends are here.

Wednesday night after the election while everybody was rejoicing over the result, one of our townsmen Tom Mitchell was very badly hurt. They were using an old hollow casing for a cannon and it burst, a piece about 13x23 inches struck him on the arm near the shoulder, burying itself in the flesh and shattering the bone so badly that it had to be amputated the next day. The operation was performed by Dr. Clark of Marion, assisted by Drs. Haydel, Harkfeld and Grassham. Tom is a very poor man, and with his misfortune while helping to ratify the grandest victory for the people ever known to this generation, and I hope every good democrat in the land will give him some pecuniary aid.

Mr. Editor, we would like to tell you something about what we did here Columbus day in our next if you will give us the space.

Corn gathering is the order of the day with the farmers. The merchants are all having a good trade, and are happy.

Lookout for a wedding soon—that young man is getting tired of paying rent on a house and no one to keep it for him.

Robt Boyd is agent for the sale of three fine farms in this county, two in the Salem valley, and one near Hampton. Home seekers are cordially invited to call on him at this place, for prices and terms.

No Sunday school last Sunday. The people here should pay their sexton for last year, and hire another.

Rev Sam Mitchell of the Upton Circuit is visiting his parents, and wounded brother at this place.

The Democratic Clubs of the county are invited to meet at Smithland next Saturday and engage in a grand rally. The Salem club expects to turn out in mass and we hope to see all the clubs of the county well represented.

Sam Slick.

LOLA.

The election is over and Grover will go to the White House, seemingly with the good will of the people at large. Personally Cleveland is a popular man and another thing in his favor he will not be pulled and hauled just any, and every way by his party.

John Foley has been on the sick list for two weeks past but is better at present writing.

Wright and Wizzell received a nice lot of hogs at this place last Thursday.

IRON HILL.

EDITOR PRESS:—Since our great victory, I feel like writing a few lines to the Press.

The boys had a ratifying jollification at Iron Hill; anvils were fired and music by the Dean boys, and everybody sober and happy, the best behaved crowd that ever met to celebrate a National victory. Saturday night will be remembered a long time by the people. Murray Travis burnt his hat for Illinois, Dick Lemon burnt his for New York and Clem Dean burnt his for everything and everybody.

There is a new bridge across the slough between the iron bridge and Fish Trap.

Piney precinct can boast of a new voting house.

Dick Gilbert and J M Dean went to Marion Sunday.

Lit Hodge wants to sell out, he says the country is ruined, when Cleveland takes his seat.

There is a great deal of sickness in our neighborhood, but it is hard to cure, being among the Republican party, and is very contagious, but a Democrat can't take it.

E. L. Horning got up at the dead hour of midnight, and fired his old musket, until the barrel got so hot he could not hold it.

Carg Hughes and family and Mrs Lucas visited E R Hill family last week.

Jack Lemon and Tom Stembridge came home to help old Grover.

Geo. Roberts little banty rooster crowed himself to death last Tuesday night.

The Republican roosters around here have got the gaps "fit to kill."

But we "got there" all the same. Hurrah for Cleveland and Stevenson and tariff reform, the Democrats and the United States.

Aunt Pheby.

T M Butler is furnishing more milk for the creamery than any one else.

Drummers were very numerous in town Monday.

Rueben Rushing thinks the election of Cleveland brought the big snow last week, but we would gladly have another snow, rather than have Harrison President again. Stone got there all the same as well as Cleveland.

Twelve of the ballots at Dycusburg were thrown out because they were not stamped on the proper place.

A number of Marionites went to Evansville Wednesday to participate in the Evansville Democratic ratification.

The secret ballot is a success. The voters generally of Crittenden are well pleased with the new way of voting.

Mr. Morgan, of Indianapolis, Ind., was in town the first of the week collecting subscription due on the creamery.

J. N. Roberts, of Iron Hill and Clark Mitchell, of Eddyville, were before the board of pension examiners at this place Wednesday.

Since the election half of the Democratic boys in Marion are wearing new watches: some have diamond pins, and others gold finger rings.

White celebrating the result of the election, Farmer Birch and Oscar Leak, at Shady Grove, were badly burned on the hands and face.

Now if some man will discover the murderer of poor Henry Dabson, the Thanksgiving turkey will taste better, and we can round out the year fairly well.

Tuesday assessor McCaslin began the work of listing the county. Mr. E. J. Flannery will work Ford's Ferry and Hurricane precincts, and Mr. Joel Pickens Piney and Bells Mines.

Pete Cook, of Matton, was in town Tuesday looking for farm hands, at least that was the way he described the hands, but the boys say it was not that kind of hands that brought Pete to town.

Monday Commissioner Walker sold the Barnes' farm, and the Shank's place, in North Crittenden. The farms were bought by the heirs the latter for $8,410 and the former for $3000. There were several bidders.

Four years ago the Democrats of Crittenden burned much powder before the election and had depleted pocket books from which to foot the bill; this year their pocket books are in better shape and post election powder will be burned.

Mr. S. P. Hicks, of Mt. Sterling, Tenn., is in this section looking after the business of the Home Nursery, of Mt. Sterling. He is well pleased with the business of his two agents Messrs. A. J. Vanhooker and A. J. Eakew, who have been selling trees for him.

The Paducah Standard says that at one election precinct in Livingston county the officers permitted everybody to crowd in around the ballot boxes booth, while the voting was going on, and on account of this there is a probability that the vote of the precinct will be thrown out.

Monday John Crider, Col., was tried before Judge Morgan for petit larceny; he was accused of getting $1.25 from A. Schwab's butcher shop money drawer, the jury acquitted him. When confronted with the theft he gave Schwab $1.25, since being acquitted he has filed suit against Schwab to recover the money.

The ratification to-morrow night will be a pleasant affair. Democracy will be in the wind, but no man of any political creed will be mistreated in the least. Captain Stone, C. K. Wheeler and J. K. Hendrick are expected to be the leading speakers while our local orators will fill up any spare time.

Tuesday after the household goods of M. Freedman were moved to the depot for shipment they were attached by the sheriff, under papers issued from the circuit clerk's office. The firms of Bettman Bloom & Co. and Jas. Franklin & Co. have each filed suit to recover claims of $626.25 and $415.50 respectively for goods purchased from them when the defendant was in business at this place.

But little liquor will be needed tomorrow night.

Capt. Stone's Reception.

As an evidence of the love his home people bear to Capt. Stone, a pleasant incident is related. The captain came down to Paducah to hear the election news, and returned home the following day. When he reached the depot at Kuttawa a hundred stalwart democrats were on hand with a big arm chair rigged up with poles. Our gallant congressman was lifted bodily into the chair and borne on the shoulders of loyal friends through the streets to the hotel, where he was called on for a speech. He was so overcome by this evidence of friendship that it was several minutes before he could gain control of his feelings sufficiently to utter a word.—Paducah Standard.

Uncollected Taxes.

Sheriff Cruce has a big job on hand, and that job is the collection of the unpaid taxes. He has out $14,539.70. It is divided among the precincts as follows:

Marion	$4173.75
Dycusburg	1409.65
Union	759.30
Hurricane	3539.90
Ford's Ferry	872.90
Bells Mines	1311.55
Piney	1213.50
Miscellaneous	576.25
Colored List	629.00

Judge Nunn Goes to Madisonville.

Judge T. J. Nunn, late candidate for Circuit Court Judge, will in a few weeks move his family to Madisonville, and enter upon the practice of his profession at that place. He has formed a co partnership with Mr. Waddle, who has been associated with Hon. Clifton Pratt in the practice of law. There is not a better citizen in Crittenden county than Judge Nunn, and his removal will be regretted by not only his political friends, but by hundreds who voted against him in the recent election. He is a citizen of the genuine substantial cast. Every enterprise that had in view the bettering of his county found a warm friend in Tom Nunn; no charity every knocked at his door and found it closed. Good society has no better friend, and the removal of himself and estimable family will be a loss to Marion and the county. His fellow lawyers respect as a learned member of the profession and an able practitioner. He has been honored by the people among whom he was raised and always proved worthy.

Last week the Press received the following:

Jennings-Threldkeld.
Mr. Frank Jennings and Miss Kate Threldkeld were united in marriage at the bride's residence in Livingston county, Wednesday, Nov. 9. Rev. J. W. Crowdon officiating. The attendants were Mr. Chas. Goodford and Miss Mattie Threldkeld. The bride was beautifully arrayed in white, and standing before the sacred altar was personification of all that goes to make pure womanhood.

The groom, attired in the conventional black, was self-possessed and handsome.

After the ceremony a handsome collation was served.

In Memoriam.
Mrs. Kate Gilbert was born the 4th of July 1852, she was a daughter of Benjamin Roach. She professed religion under the preaching of Rev. Bennett Barnes in 1871 and joined the church at Crooked Creek the same year where she lived a consistent christian until death. She was married to R. M. Gilbert on the 30th of July 1873. Sister Gilbert was a good neighbor, a kind mother and wife. On the 26th of October 1892, the summons came for her to come up higher; on the morning before she died she called her friends around her and bid them a last farewell, telling her children to prepare to meet her in heaven, where parting will be no more. She told her step mother-in-law that she had a precious home in heaven so bright, oh so bright. She told her husband and friends not to weep for her, for she did not feel like weeping; the writer and family with a host of friends are in deep sympathy with the bereaved family.

A FRIEND.
A sewing machine given away Dec 10th. For particulars address Geo. M. Crider, Marion, Ky.

What They Say About It.

W. J. Deboo—The Populists in the West, and the whiskey in the East, is what did it.

Geo. M. Crider—G e o.

J. A. Moore—Crittenden is all right.

Albert Wilborn—Harrison should have sent us word that he was not a candidate.

M. E. Fohs—Wait until I get a letter from home.

H. A. Haynes—Want you fellows to have an extra session of Congress and give as your way.

E. B. Blackburn—If Harrison will come to Crittenden he will stand some show of getting an office.

Postmaster Coffield.—
A. J. Pickens—Dog-gone!

W. B. Randall—Lem me sell you an overcoat.

Tom Randall—It's bad enough without mentioning it in a paper.

A. M. Henry—Any man is a fool to bet his moustache on an election. I might have survived a defeat, but this bare lip is killing me.

E. T. Franks—My time expires July 1. (He expired Nov. 9.)

S. W. Adams—I have just read in some newspaper that "politics is h—l," and my experience verifies the expression.

Andy Woodall—You are too fresh young man. I am not talking politics today, I am singing, and I am always sad when I sing.

J. A. Davidson—Boys, let's go home.

Milt Babb—Golly, how surprised I was.

Look at This.
O. M. James—It was a ground swell, a cyclone, a hurricane such as my heart yearned for. Step aside a minute while I yell. Hurrah for C—d.

A. L. Cruce—I haven't got time to talk to you; I must collect my taxes. Jeff, Frank, get a move on you.

Dr. J. R. Clark—I did think Key's would carry his own county; I am afraid Deboo will beat him.

Clem Dean—We've got the earth and Piney too.

P. S. Maxwell—All the world is a stage, and the principal actors appear to be Democrats.

E. C. Flannery—I'll swear I didn't expect it.

Mr. A. C. Moore has opened a law office in the second story of the bank building, over the barber shop. He is a rising young lawyer, and his recent canvases for Commonwealth's Attorney has extended his acquaintance among the people which is advantageous to him.

When the candidates for the past office are all in a list will be published.

The growing demand for building lumber in Marion shows a healthy growth.
